

Boulevard of Broken Dreams

Tony Bennett

I walk along the street of sorrow
The boulevard of broken dreams
    Where gigolo and gigolette
    Can take a kiss without regret
    So they forget their broken dreams

You laugh tonight and cry tomorrow
When you behold your shattered schemes
    Gigolo and gigolette
    Wake up to find their eyes are wet
    With tears that tell of broken dreams

[Chorus]
Here is where you'll always find me
    Always walking up and down
    But I left my soul behind me
    In an old cathedral town

The joy that you find here you borrow
You cannot keep it long it seems
    Gigolo and gigolette
    Still sing a song and dance along
    The boulevard of broken dreams

[Chorus]
The joy that you find here you borrow
You cannot keep it long it seems
    But gigolo and gigolette
    Still sing a song and dance along
    The boulevard of broken dreams
