Caution! Girls

Stereo Skyline

Read the warning signs,
The direction label,
The caution line,
But still I get the worst of it all in the end.
The kind of after-taste
That'll leave you dry and over-stale for days,
With no sign of letting up too easily.
Too easily.
Delete the person,
Delete the name,
The one that's always in your dreams.
Delete the memories,
Delete the trust,
Delete the times we thought we loved.
There's only one thing left to say-
Delete me from your memory.
So this is what you chose to do.
The time you wanted for yourself turned down for two.
Seems such a shame to waste these days.
When they fade away,
What'll be left for you?
For you? (Screaming)
Delete the person,
Delete the name,

The one that's always in your dreams.
Delete the memories,
Delete the trust,
Delete the times we thought we loved.
Delete me from your memory.
Delete the person,
Delete the name,
The one that's always in your dreams.
Delete the memories,
Delete the trust,
Delete the times we thought we loved.
There's only one thing left to say-
Delete me from your memory.

Delete the person,
(Read the warning signs.)
Delete the name,
(The directions label.)
The one that's always in your dreams.
(The caution line.)
Delete the memories,
(But still I get the)
Delete the trust,
(Worst of it)
Delete the times we thought we loved.
(All in the end)
There's only one thing left to say-
(Read the warning signs.)
Delete me from your memory.
