

Bitter Conflict

Dew-Scented

Inner decay divine for all
Abysmal pain, I sleep under the skin
A fatal endless maze of shame
Killing pride in self annihilationLook in my eyes
Remnants of lust
Join the bitter conflict nowFeeding on anger
Beholding the cries of dismay
In a bitter conflict
Come onArise, stand strong
Disciples of the fall
A living lust of war inside
For all is set to end in all
We're sworn to fuckin' live through and prevailA force-fed suffering
To embrace your private agony
With just another casualty
While I show you we are all servants of fearInner decay divine for all
Abysmal pain, I sleep under the skin
A fatal endless maze of shame
Killing pride in self annihilationFeeding on anger
Beholding the cries of dismay
Unconditional hate eternal
Come onArise, stand strong
Disciples of the fall
A living lust of war inside
For all is set to end in all
We're sworn to fuckin' live through and prevailA force-fed suffering
To embrace your private agony
As just another casualty
While I show you we are all the servants of fear
