

Shedding Skin (feat. Melanie De Biasio)

Ghostpoet

Riding the overground, dreaming away
They seem to stare at me, at first start looking at me
Voice deep in my head
'Simmer down, simmer down'
They're taking liberties, blatant like I don't exist
Rage grows inside of me, I want to fight, just give them a kick
Voice deep in my head
'Simmer down, simmer down' You think you know me, you never know me
You think you know me, you never know me
You think you know me, you never know me
You think you know me, you never know
Simmer down
Simmer down
Heart beating faster now, pissed off and facing defeat
I just don't get it man, just because I live in the street
Voice deep in my head
'Simmer down, simmer down'
Maybe it's worth it then, sometimes maybe it ain't
I just want to feel again, right now I feel nothing but pain
Voice deep in my head
'Simmer down, simmer down'
You think you know me, you never know me
You think you know me, you never know me
You think you know me, you never know me
You think you know me, you never know
Simmer down
Simmer down
