

That Truck

Dylan Marlowe

I bought the beer
We got to drinkinâ€™TM
I hung the moon
We got to stare up at the stars
You brought a koozie and a blanket
And we watched forever fade into the dark â€œcause you had to leave and I had to watch it
And you had your mind made up on back
It hurt like hell
I couldnâ€™t stop it
Oh but something â€œbout tonightâ€™s
Got my mind lookinâ€™ back when
We burned it down, we drank it up
And we made the sun wait on us
(yeah the sun waitinâ€™ on us)
We ran the night, we made the love
And we left our hearts in a cloud of dust
We knew the miles would be too much
So we gave it all we had
And we left it in the back of that truck
Well I traded in and you traded up
Didnâ€™t know just what I had
Till it was long gone
If I could go back in time
Then iâ€™d buy it up
Every single minute of every memory
Of us when
We burned it down, we drank it up
And we made the sun
Wait on us
(yeah the sun waitinâ€™ on us)
We ran the night, we made the love
And we left our hearts in a cloud of dust
We knew the miles would be too much
So we gave it all we had
And we left it in the back of that truck
Empty cans in the bed
That sun in the sky
Stole another kiss for the last time

And we burned it down we drank it up
And we made the sun wait on us
We ran the night, we made the love
And we left our hearts in a cloud of dust
Yeah we burned it down, we drank it up
And we made the sun wait on us
(yeah the sun waitin' on us)
We ran the night, we made the love
And we left our hearts in a cloud of dust
We knew the miles would be too much
So we gave it all we had
And we left it in the back of that truck
