

Little Guy from the Suburbs

FFS

A Little Guy From The Suburbs I'm just a little guy from the suburbs
Who learned to kill before the others
Romantic activist I'm a joker
I say Vive Le Quebec Libre Well if you hear this
No, when you hear this
You'll know I didn't make it
like we hoped we would
But you know
No heroes
Just those who care
More for their legend
Thank their life There are no heroes in this life
I tried, yes I tried with a shy girl
To live respectable but decided
Fake Existentialists, I'm the martyr
I steal for the bank of Jean Paul Sartre
But you know
No heroes I am The Little Guy From The Suburbs
But I learned to kill better than the others
What's that you said about execution?
Ah, bring on the beatification
Well if you hear this
No, WHEN you hear this
You'll know I didn't make it
Like we hoped we would
But you know
No heroes
I don't care for my legend
Or my life
There are no heroes in this life
