Hurricane

The Asteroids Galaxy Tour

I don't know where to start
Now I'm walking the road of broken hearts Yeah I know it was written in the stars
Now I'm falling, I'm falling apartI don't know how to begin
The words seem to blow in the wind
All I know is that it's too late, too late To fall in, fall in, fall in, fall in loveA hurricane will blow through everything I know
and take me away
Oh baby please save me from myself and lift me to the state of euphoriaTell me how, how to explain When sounds seem to drown in the rain
I'm caught up, I'm caught up in chains
Now I'm calling, I'm calling out your nameI don't know when this ends Cause reason and dreams seem to blend I gotta go, I gotta keep on moving Cause it's tearing, tearing, tearing, tearing me apartA hurricane will blow through everything I know
and take me away
and lift me to the state of euphoria
Ohh
A hurricane will blow through everything I know
and take me away
Oh baby please save me from myself
and lift me to the state of euphoria.
