

Hello Romance (Houseshaker & ThimLife Radio Edit)

DJ Antoine

Hello romance
I've been waiting for you
Thought we never gonna meet again
My sweet romance
You say no woman no cry
We all need a second chance
Hello romance
Love never, love never ends
No, no, no, no Sometimes, I feel like
All our hope is gone and I wonder
Tell me
Where is the love? When the lights go out
You won't hear a sound
I'll be right behind you
So you better say your prayers tonight Hello romance
I've been waiting for you
Thought we never gonna meet again
My sweet romance
You say no woman no cry
We all need a second chance
Hello romance
Love never, love never ends
No, no, no, no This time, it feels like
We are meant to be as one
Together, forever
This is love When the lights go out
You won't hear a sound (no sound)
I'll be right behind you
So you better say your prayers tonight Hello romance
I've been waiting for you
Thought we never gonna meet again
My sweet romance
You say no woman no cry
We all need a second chance
Hello romance
Love never, love never ends
No, no, no, no
Hello romance
Love never, love never ends

No, no, no, no
