The Song They Play Every Night Lyrics

Dark, bring into the sky Shaking the clouds till the harps aloud of tune And the song they play every night Keeping you awake while the thought sleeps in your soul And every ?
Just made it deeper darker and wider than before dont make me said out loud anymore and the calm just the change my see turn the useful nightmare into a boring dream and my room like a map of my time it's always half past twelve and divided by two lines and every step i took to take me further from the source just brought me closer, inward and more lost than before don't make me said out loud anymore oooh ahh
if you don't love me now you didn't love me before my love is turn into a grave loneliness is my enemy is my only relief from the child lost in the crowd looking for the land Mars that she keep burning down and every seep i took from corpse i covered that all my sculp just made me older slower and sadder than before dont make me said out loud before oooh noo
if you don't love me now you didn't love me before
