

I Wonder

Sharleen Spiteri

All I know I should come clean say exactly what I mean
Every chance you get you seem to
Hurt me more and more
But each hurt makes my mind
Stronger than before
If your memory serves you well
Were gonna meet again some day
Hey, yeah, I look back on these things
I said before its too late
I wonder when you cry
Tell me no lie, is this how you feel?
I wonder when you cry
I tell you no lie, this is how I feel
I'd like to think you'd understand
Now theres someone else holding my hand
Youre not the one I love
So dont stand in my way
You know that life for me
Has changed in many ways
If your memory serves you well
Were gonna meet again some day
Hey, yeah, I look back on these things
I said it before its too late
I wonder when you cry
Tell me no lie, is this how you feel?
I wonder when you cry
I tell you no lie, this is how I feel
With every chance you get
Cause every time we met
Oh, you tried to hurt me
Hurt me more and more
If your memory serves you well
Were gonna meet again
I'll look back, I'll look back
I'll look back on these things
I wonder when you cry
Tell me no lie, is this how you feel?
I wonder when you cry
I tell you no lie, this is how I feel
I wonder when you cry
Tell me no lie, is this how you feel?
I wonder when you cry
I tell you no lie, this is how I feel
I'll look back on these things
I'll look back on these things
I'll look back on these things
