

1,000 Letters

Ryan Cassata

[Verse 1]

There's always calm before the storm
Riding in the back with no seat belts on
Falling in love at the break of dawn
Dancing in the kitchen keep it turned on
Two more days until I'm gone
The wings gonna take me, but not for long
There's always calm before the storm
Riding in the back with no seat belts on
Take our dreams and please hold on
When I come back well turn them on again
Riding on the plane, I'll go so far
Still, we're under the same old stars
Don't worry, I will light you up again

[Chorus]

One thousand letters being sent your way
One thousand kisses and words from me today
One thousand letters, one thousand letters
Oh yeah, oh, yeah they're on the way

[Verse 2]

You tell my mom and tell my pa
I won't be home 'til after dark
I'll take the last flight to the coast
I'm sure the mountains would miss me most
I've changed my mind I'm not going home
Leave the lights on I'll be back at ten
When I get there I'll be on my knees
Begging you to marry me
I swear I'll never leave you again

[Chorus]

One thousand letters being sent your way
One thousand kisses and words from me today
One thousand letters, one thousand letters
Oh, yeah, oh, yeah, I'm on the way!

[Verse 3]

You can tell my Ma and tell my pa

We got a house on the hill and a nice big car
Living good and lovin' great
There never will be another lonely night
We're living fine and we've spent a dime
To fix the place up nice for us to stay
Don't worry Mom I'll visit soon
Remember we're under the same old moon
For now, all I can send to you is this

[Chorus]

One thousand letters being sent your way
One thousand kisses and words from me today
One thousand letters, one thousand letters
Oh, mom, I'm doing fine
Oh, mom, we're doing fine

Lyrics Submitted by Money Bags

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>