The Raging Season

Symphony X

From whom the Gods destroy they first make mad casting shadows on our fears Malicious designs built strong and iron-clad catostrophic conclusion, judgement closes nearChaos sets the stage bitter mouths of violent rage spinning webs of timeless confusion help us find our wayTonight can we scape from this hell (seasons ragin - sands of time will fall)
conquer the wicked tonight can we escape from ourselvesTen-thousand tyrants preach their treachery striking down the weary and the wise Swords of oppression sever the artery of our freedom - victimizedChaos sets the stage bitter mouths of violent rage
help us find our wayTonight can we scape from this hell (seasons ragin - sands of time will fall)
conquer the wicked
tonight can we escape from ourselvesDown-cast jaded - the glory has faded so close your eyes (locked in the darkness all your life...)
dream a twisted tale - dark and venomous (...do you really have a reason not to fell this raging season) so infamousWatch the raging inferno of serpents rip the flesh from all your pride and glory then you die open your eyes - it's true[Solo]Chaos sets the stage bitter mouths of violent rage
help us find our wayTonight can we scape from this hell (seasons ragin - sands of time will fall)
conquer the wicked
tonight can we escape from ourselves
