

Brotha

Jill Scott

So many times you tried to cut we
You want to tear we down
But you can't touch we
We aint invincible, but, Lord knows we are beautiful
And blessedBrotha, dont let nobody hold you back, no, no, no
Dont let nobody hold you, control you or mold you
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back, no, no, noAm I my brothers keeper? Yes, I am
So many times, you tried to burn we
You want to break we down
We aint invincible, but, Lord knows were magnificent
And blessedBrotha, dont let nobody hold you back, no, no, no
Dont let nobody hold you back, keep on movin' on Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back, no, no, no
Dont let nobody hold you never now
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back, no, no, noIf nobody told you 'bout that, Im here to let you know that Youre so wonderful, youre so marvelous, youre so beautiful
You're splendid, you're fabulous
Brilliantly blessed in every way
Your can't touch weBrotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you backBrotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you backBrotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
Brotha, dont let nobody hold you back
