

Luna

Bombay Bicycle Club

I will bathe myself
Then I'll wear you for the night
Colors fading, frayed at the sight(You're changing in the night)
Oh why is your face so pale and white?There's a lot of words to call out
Just waiting for the perfect hideout
Down when the walls started shaking
I'm ready for you to find out
Ah-ooo-ooo
To find out
Ah-ooo-oooNow that the night has fled
Just like everything I said
When the moon was out instead(Not sun, gold, soft and rain)
You burn through my mind, again and again, again
And again and againThere's a lot of words to call out
Just waiting for the perfect hideout
Down when the walls started shaking
I'm ready for you to find out
Ah-ooo-ooo
To find out
Ah-ooo-oooThere's a lot of words to call out
Just waiting for the perfect hideout
Down when the walls started shaking
I'm ready for you to find out
Ah-ooo-ooo
To find out
Ah-ooo-ooo
