Life is tricky don't you know baby
Gotta be picky with the words maybe Tryin to answer you with smoke and light confess that I will choke in case you biteRun, away from you I'm done hollow emptyFeels like I'm breathing all this tainted air
My hands are painted and my clothes will tare
Beneath the covers when your lips are worn
Show me no quarter you can lead me onI will follow
I will follow
I will follow
you (x4)Black and white is all that I can see Pounding my head a different melody
Haunting my brain till it drives me mad
Forgetting all of the doubts I hadRun, away from you I'm done hollow empty[2X]
Feels like I'm breathing all this tainted air
My hands are painted and my clothes will tare
Beneath the covers when your lips are worn
Show me no quarter you can lead me onI will follow
I will follow
I will follow
you (x4)
