

Rebound (feat. elkka)

Flosstradamus

And I'll do it again, and I'll do it again In the darkness I am weakened

I'll soon regret it

I can hear my mind creaking

Try to forget it

Lose control of all my senses

All of a sudden I just relapse

Too late for me I always go back One bye one

And I'll do it again, and I'll do it again

Temptation

And I'll do it again

So we

Rebound hard

Wake up scarred

This is not what we're supposed to do

Rebound hard

Back to the start

Will I always belong to you This is not what we're supposed to do Lets say goodbye then I'm leaving

We wont regret it

And for a second I am healing

Try to forget it

With just a touch I'm defenseless

All of a sudden I just relapse

I know I said I wouldn't go back

One bye one

And I'll do it again, and I'll do it again

Temptation

And I'll do it again So we

Rebound hard

Wake up scarred

This is not what we're supposed to do

Rebound hard

Back to the start

Will I always belong to you This is not what we're supposed to do I can run away mixing color with the grey

So I'll hold back, give me time to recover

I can run away pressing pause on your replay

And then I'll do it again I can run away mixing color with the grey

So I'll hold back, give me time to recover

I can run away pressing pause on your replay

But we go back cause we're bound together One bye one

And I'll do it again, and I'll do it again
Temptation
And I'll do it again So we
Rebound hard
Wake up scarred
This is not what we're supposed to do
Rebound hard
Back to the start
Will I always belong to you This is not what we're supposed to do
