

Be Beautiful (feat. Luke Sital-Singh)

Aqualung

Will bury me today
It didn't end well
Don't let it carry us away
Sunk down, fired up, stepping out
And burned this into something
Something, something
Oh It's written in the skies,
The covet of the Earth
It's shining in your eyes
Across the universe
We should be beautiful
We should be beautiful
So beautiful, yeah Perfection is silent
And elegance is still
Beauty won't catch your eye
The way the bad shit will Oh down, fired up, stepping out
To burn this into something
Something, something
Oh It's written in the skies,
The covet of the Earth
It's shining in your eyes
Across the universe
We should be beautiful
We should be beautiful
Isn't this beautiful?
We should be beautiful
So beautiful So let's be beautiful
Darling, I know we can be beautiful
So let's be beautiful
Yeah (It's written in the skies,
The covet of the Earth
It's shining in your eyes
Across the universe) Oh darling let's be beautiful
Beautiful, beautiful
Before we're out of space and time
