

Crash and Burn

Elise Estrada

ooooooooohhh ooooouuuhhh oooh ooooo

I'm sorry babe

how could I be such an idiot?

We're talking through the door, please open it..

I'm down on my knees and the neighbors can see,

That I regret so desperately baby, can you please just hear me out...

I really hope that God I can work it out...

I'm sick to the skin please let me in...

You can't believe, what I must've been...

I know that you're hurting,

I know I was wrong,

I know that for certain, you know we belong

Please let me see you, please open up

I beg your forgiveness, don't let us fall

Give me one more chance, before we crash and burn

Give me one more chance, before the point of no return

I'd give everything to make it good again

I'd do anything to get out of this tailspin

Give me one more chance before, before we crash and burn.

Please

Please baby, don't leave me standing here,

Makeup running black in a stream of tears

I think what we had, let's get it back

'Cause losing you is gonna drive me mad

I know that you're hurting,

I know I was wrong,

I know that for certain, you know we belong

Please let me see you

Please open up

I beg your forgiveness, don't let us fall.

Give me one more chance, before we crash and burn

Give me one more chance, before the point of no return

I'd give everything, to make this good again

I'd do anything to get out of this tailspin
Give me one more chance before, before we crash and burn

Please baby baby, let me come inside (come inside)
We can talk it out, where it's warm and dry (warm and dry)
I really need you to have look into my eyes (oh oh)
I want you to believe me, when I apologize

Give me one more chance, before we crash an burn
Give me one more chance, Before the point of no return
I'd do everything to make this good again
I'd do anything to get out of this tailspin
Give me one more chance before, before we crash and burn

Mmm.. Before we crash and burn
