Control

BulletProof Messenger

All of us will lead this place and cast our doubts aside
'Cause it's not easy to to say what's on your mind
All at once you'll see my face and there's no question why
We'll leave this place and let loose to find the sign

In control
Take your best shot and let it go
When you pray for the sake of your soul
You'll finally know
You should say goodbye
This is the reason I'm
In control

Apocalyptic can't quite kick this waste your precious time
And our destruction will make us fall in line
Though it's close these shots are to the meaning rhyme
Through this deception they'll learn the question why

In control
Take your best shot and let it go
When you pray for the sake of your soul
You'll finally know
You should say goodbye
This is the reason I'm
In control

In control
Take your best shot and let it go
When you pray for the sake of your soul
You'll finally know
You should say goodbye
This is the reason I'm
You should say goodbye
This is the reason I'm
In control
