

Get Your Share

Fink

I used to live on cloud 9, now I moved to 8
And I do serious business in surreal estate
You are on the edge but you'll have to wait
To blow out all the candles on your birthday cake

You're really gonna get your share, yeah
You're really gonna get your share
Ooh yeah, ooh yeah

Light a friendly fire in your neighborhood
Nobody is watching you're misunderstood
And if you got no good ideas then you need business plans
And if you got no grooving feet then you need helping hands

You're really gonna get your share, yeah
You're really gonna get your share
Ooh yeah, ooh yeah, ooh yeah
You're really gonna get your share

Close your ears and slowly start to count to 5
Tell your mama we're on emulation overdrive
And there's no second nature, well, I know you knew
Subjectivity and different points of view, yeah

You're really gonna get your share, yeah
You're really gonna get your share
Ooh yeah, ooh yeah, ooh yeah
Sure you're gonna get your share
