Bachelor Life

Laurel Aitken

I'm tired of bachelor life
I'm looking for a wife
She must be looking nice
Or else get out of sight

The road may be long and dreary
But it has an end
So I'm telling you can believe
That a woman is your only friend

So I'm tired of bachelor life
I'm looking for a wife
A life without a wife
Is like a kitchen without a knife

So I'm tired of bachelor life
I'm looking for a wife
A life without a wife

A life without a wife

[Repeat, fade out]
