Black Fire

Pacific Express

We come from over the dark horizon sky
With twisted tales of sacrifice
To imagine or believe all the glory of the free
Hunting all day an endless cry
The things I've seen I can't deny
Sinners, saints all mixed in one
The dawn of time has begun
Why can't you see what they're doing to me?
Is it fair that I'm dying in vain?
Once in a land of sacrifice
Now only valleys of demise
Shadows of a pale blue moonlight
Ride the waves of entity
Why can't you see what they're doing to me?
Is it fair that you all die in vain?
Ride with the steel and the power of the sword
Stand up and fight now and forever more
Rise through the night sky with daylight's desire
To be free there must be black fire
Through the day and through the night
With dragons heart the warrior strikes
This is the day that they'll be known as my enemy
Why can't you see what they're doing
To what we believe in, we rise through the pain
Ride with the steel and the power of the sword
Stand up and fight now and forever more
Rise through the night sky with daylight's desire
To be free there must be black fire
We come from distant lands, we travel so far
Can you see the bleeding scar?
The prizes of life we fail to win
'Cause we doubt the power within, yeah
Oh oh oh oh
Why can't you see what they're doing
To what we believe in, we rise through the pain
Ride with the steel and the power of the sword
Stand up and fight now and forever more
Rise through the night sky with daylight's desire
To be free there must be black fire, black fire
