

State of Mind

Holly Valance

You don't need to hang around
You don't need to talk right now
Gotta feeling, it's a mistake
Gotta feeling, it's gonna break
Some days, sometimes just don't feel right Too hot to touch, it's getting too much
You know it's just a state of mind
Driving you wild, you're torn up inside
You know it's just a state of mind
State of mind All I need is to breathe
All I need is to believe
Gotta have it, now I know
Gotta have it, take it slow
Some days, sometimes it just goes right Too hot to touch, it's getting too much
You know it's just a state of mind
Driving you wild, you're torn up inside
You know it's just a state of mind
State of mind State of mind, state of mind
Ahh Too hot to touch
(Yeah)
Ahh
(It's my state of mind)
Driving you wild
(I was driving you wild) Too hot to touch, it's getting too much
You know it's just a state of mind
Driving you wild, you're torn up inside
You know it's just a state of mind
State of mind State of mind, state of mind Too hot to touch, it's getting too much
You know it's just a state of mind
Driving you wild, you're torn up inside
You know it's just a state of mind
State of mind State of mind, state of mind
You know it's just a state of mind
