

Longest Time

The Bar and Grill Singers

If these lawyers talk another day,
We the jury will make sure they pay
What else can we do?
We're trapped inside this courtroom...
This trial has lasted for the longest time!

Once I thought this trial was nearly done
Then they put their dispositions on
That's when they lost me
With their expert testimony
I haven't listened for the longest time!

They said this won't last very long
But it's been two weeks -
My job could be gone
Maybe I've been hoping too hard
But we've come this far and it's only half over!

We get six whole dollars every day
That is less than what McDonald's pays
I wany my life back - maybe even see my wife
But I know that won't happen for the longest time!

Who knows how much longer we'll go?
The judge said one week, but I don't think so
This must be what hell is like I know
But there I'd rather go and it's one thing
I'll trade for!

I don't care who loses or who wins
I just want this misery to end
And then it's our turn to torture lawyers
When we'll be deliberating for the longest time!

Lyrics Submitted by Gregory B Acedo

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>