

Green Hearts

Ben Lee

I swear I've never been speechless
Till today, no way
I never thought you weren't pretty
Had to say, had to say
And if you need some kind of reassurance
I'll cry and send my tears
But if you don't know I'm sorry
Then my green hearts won't mean anything
I draw a picture of red hearts
On a plate, just to state
I don't need love, just a letter
In my way, on my tray
And if you hate me 'cause I'm selfish
I'll begin to understand
But if you don't know I'm sorry
Then my green hearts won't mean anything
Yeah, my green hearts won't mean anything
