

Lady Of Winter

Crimson Glory

Her wraith rides
The crystal sky
Of changing colorsThe glowing clouds
Are moving through
The winter nightSnow is falling, silver shining
Through the shadows
Deep blue dreaming
Eyes of diamond shineLady of winter
Turning to rain
White world of wonder
Fading awayBright beams
Of violent light
Break the silenceMelting colors crushed
Beneath the waves
Of rolling flamesSeasons turning
Burning, burningLady of winter
Song in the wind
Melody whispers
Seasons will changeLady of winter
Turning to rain
White world of wonder
Fading awayLady of winter
Song in the wind
Melody whispers
Seasons will change
