

Wonder What's Next

Chevelle

It sometimes feels like a burden
I want you to succeed
Is this a good quality?
I wonder what's next?
Nothing More and more it's an animal
Waitin' to be seen
Face of someones failures
A sickenin' sight indeed, indeed, indeed
Huu In the beginnin' it seems that
No one thinks beyond havin' fun
Which is why you write music in the first place
Always movin', refinin', pushin' forward
The art that one's created
Lookin' to the right time to share it
And then the headaches of criticism
Senior advisers, unseen people above
Twistin', distortin' that which we love
And never endin' problems with money
Holdin' you back
Preventin' progress
I thought you only started 'cause it was fun We play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn
We play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn Ohh we play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn
Ohh we play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn! I wonder
I wonder what's next? Yes we play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn
We play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn We play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn
We play the blamin' game
Yes I mind, it's not your turn We play the blamin' game
We play the blamin' game
