

DANGER 3

Jordan Bratton

We stumble we fall we trip
Times like hipsters in the night
Times like hipsters in the night
You drink, we don't
We love, you won't
Times like hipsters in the night
Like hipsters in the nightWhite dust in your system
Green lights on your face
Red blood running down your face oh yeahI've been mislead for way too long
Took this trail like a hundred times
If this life should take over me, the end
It will be the death of a good man
The time it takes, takes to find your way baby
It will be the death of a good man
More can't you wait to seek revenge on me
It will be the death of a good man
The time it takes, takes to find your way baby
It will be the death of a good man
More can't you wait to seek revenge on meWhite dust in your system
Satins falling through your system
Paved this path full of gold
Thought it lead to your soul
To your soul, to your soulI've been mislead for way too long
Took this trail like a hundred times
If this life should take over me, the end
It will be the death of a good man
The time it takes, takes to find your way baby
It will be the death of a good man
More can't you wait to seek revenge on me
It will be the death of a good man
The time it takes, takes to find your way baby
It will be the death of a good man
More can't you wait to seek revenge on meWe stumble we fall we trip
Times like hipsters in the night
Times like hipsters in the night
You drink, we don't
We love, you won't
Times like hipsters in the night
Like hipsters in the nightThe time it takes, takes to find your way baby

It will be the death of a good man
More can't you wait to seek revenge on me, yeah
The death of a good man
The time it takes, takes to find your way baby
It will be the death of a good man
More can't you wait to seek revenge on me
