

Broken

Jack Johnson

With everything ahead of us we left, everything behind
But nothing that we needed at least
Not at this time
And I, feeling that I'm feeling, well
Is feeling like my life was finally mine
With nothing to go back to
We just continue, to drive Without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side
I said without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side I didn't know what I was looking for
So I, didn't know what I'd find
I didn't know what I was missing
I guess you've been just a little to kind
And if I find just what I need
Put a little piece in my mind
Maybe you've been looking to
Maybe you don't even need to try Without you I was broken
And I'd rather be broke down with you by my side
I said without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side With everything in the past fading faster and faster until it was gone
Thought that I was loosing so much more than I knew all along
But everything I was working for, only worth nickels and dimes
But if I had had a minute for every hour that I wasted I'd be rich in time
I'd be doing fine Cause without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side
So without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side So without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side
I said without you I was broken
But I'd rather be broke down with you by my side
