Bridegroom

Belial's Bride

It would be outstanding for me to find: The one who shares the same frame of mind.
Burying myself in hope to find you after my resurrection.

Reaching hard and deep into my soul: I seek your love.... It's you, I want to hold.
Searching until the end your found. I pray that my love for you will never leave me.

Watching the world as it takes you away: My spirit drifts with no direction.
Where's the love to fill my soul? Where's the love to feel my soul?!
