

Red, Green, Yellow, & Blue

Dickey Lee

Red Green Yellow and Blue

Dickey Lee

(Spoken)

I've still got your letter clutched in my hand..
If there was some other guy, yeah, maybe I'd understand..
But this way girl, I don't know what to do..
I only know I love you girl.. I Love You!

Your Mama said you left about an hour ago
Your Sister said she heard you mention San Francisco
You think you've found the new world, Don't you go girl.

Oh No have I lost you to Red, Green, Yellow and Blue?

I ran down Uptown searching for you
I checked the Bus Station and the Airlines too
You're runnin' down a ledge girl, can't you see the edge now?

Oh Lord have I lost you to Red, Green, Yellow and Blue?

Girl don't curl up in the back of your mind
Don't let the inner world take what's mine
Cause once there you don't always come back,
and pretty soon your pretty colors all turn black.

You're halfway up your rainbow girl by now
You're way too high to find your way back down
Girl I'm gonna miss ya and I won't be goin' with you no more

Cause you'll try to come back, but they're on you
Red, Green, Yellow..... and Blue
(Red, Green, Yellow & Blue)
