Price To Pay

Element Eighty

Take away the thoughts i had today
I didn't think that they would stay
Now it's the price i have top pay
And in my mind there's nothing left to find
I've been shot down from behind
No time left to unwind
Don't leave me standing here with my wasted time that's all been spent now
Cause i swear that we had a little more now
Don't leave me standing here with my wasted time that's all been spent now
Cause i swear, yes i swear we had a little bit more
Just yesterday i thought that i could stay
But it can never be the same
I can never tell you why

Cause you can never see me try
So i guess it will just have to be goodbye
Don't leave me standing here with my wasted time that's all been spent now
Cause i swear that we had a little more now
Don't leave me standing here with my wasted time that's all been spent now
Cause i swear, yes i swear we had a little bit more
We had more
Don't leave me standing here with my wasted time that's all been spent now
I swear that we had a little more
We stayed, we stayed just a little bit longer than i had planned
And i swear, yes i swear we had a little bit more
Don't leave me standing here with my wasted time that's all been spent now
Cause i swear, yes i swear we had a little bit more
