Alone Again

Marie Hines

Tick tock and it's 4am
I'm alone again, againSeconds marked by the hour hand
I'm alone again, again again.An empty lie for an open wound
I'm alone again, againCandlelight shows an empty room
I'm alone again, againAgain Again.Hold on, hold on to your love
Hold on, hold on to your love your love
Hold on to your loveCaught your hand as you left my bed,
We're alone again, againI searched your eyes, but you turned your head
We're alone again, again againHold on, hold on to your love
Hold on, hold on to your love your love
Hold on to your loveWith harder hearts and thicker skin,
We're alone again, againA discount love from a bargain bin
We're alone again, againI look for me when I'm lost in you
I'm alone again, againFound the day when the night was through
But I'm alone again, again Again.
