The Lake

Christina Goh

The lakeI've walked a thousand times near the lake
Nobody knows me near the lake
I've cried so many nights near the lake
Nobody talked with me near the lakeI am searching near the lake who I am
Dream or nightmare, it depends
You can try
I'm a mess
It's a sos
For the world I live inside
Loneliness, oh restless
One, two, threeI've walked a thousand times near the lake
Nobody knows me near the lake
I've cried so many nights near the lake
Nobody talked with me near the lakeI am searching near the lake who I am
Dreams or nightmare, it depends
You can try
I'm a mess
It's a sos
For the world I live inside
Loneliness, oh restless
One, two, threeI've walked a thousand times near the lake
I found myself near the lake
I found myself
