Trippin

Christina Rome

I fell in love last night
It's true that I'm slippin'
I ain't trippin'
No solid footin' when in my past
he's only there when he's sippin'
I ain't trippin'

Called all my ladies
They'll be comin' around
Say since I met him
They ain't witnessed a smile
But I don't hear them
I be caught up in his games
I don't listen
I ain't trippin'

Telling me I look good
Ready to leave but I stood
Right back where I started
Selling me games and I bought it

And I'm knowin' that I should
Try to make a change if I could
But I can't
And I won't
Let him go

So no, I don't give damn
No, I don't give a damn
(No)
Cause nothing seems to matter
I still choose him over me
I'm hiding in his shadow
And that's where I wanna be

--and I know that it's wrong
Can't stop it if I try
A feeling that lives on and it's killing me inside
But I don't give a damn

No, I don't give a damn
Cause it's where I wanna be

So what's the use of holding on to you when you're playing?
(playing, playing, playing)
I just take it
Oh, what you say and what you do
No follow through
You just gamin'
(gamin, gamin)
But I take it

Here for tonight
I'm hoping you improve
But you're just the latest version
Of the same old you
It's like I'm blind
Pay no mind
To the signs
That our time is just wasted
(wasted, wasted)

But I take it when you telling me I look good,
ready to leave but I stood,
right back where I started, selling me games and I bought it

And I'm knowin' that I should
Try to make a change if I could
But I can't
And I won't
Let him go

So no I don't give a damn
No, I don't give a damn
(No)
Cause nothing seems to matter
I still choose him over me
I'm hiding in his shadow
And that's where I wanna be

And I know that it's wrong
Can't stop it if I try
A feeling that lives on and it's killing me inside
But I don't give a damn
No I don't give a damn

Cause it's where I wanna be

Calling me saying the same thing
I know you lie but it's working
Falling right back in the same place
(I--I--I know you lie but it's working)
(I--I--I know you lie but it's working)

Calling me saying the same thing
I know you lie but it's working
I'm falling right back in the same place
(I--I--I know you lie but it's working)
I know you lie but it's working

So no, I don't give a damn
No I don't give a damn
(No)
Cause nothing seems to matter
I still choose him over me
I'm hiding in his shadow
And that's where I wanna be

And I know that it's wrong
Can't stop it if I try
A feeling that lives on and it's killin' me inside
But I don't give a damn
No, I don't give a damn
Cause it's where I wanna be

I fell in love last night
It's true that I'm slippin'
I ain't trippin'
