

All I Want

Passion Pit

All I want are hooks to hang your flowers from
And paper to write letters on
'Cause you're all I everHave, it's all I'll ever haveWhen we wake up you engulf me in your love
Waking up is always still, it's all I'll everHave, it's all I'll ever haveAnd all you need is someone new She's what you can't see
The things you think you'll never be
That's all I'll everHave, it's all I'll ever haveI get the notion that I'm almost there
I get the notion that we're getting closer
And with one motion it could all go wrong
If I'm emotional it'll ruin it all
And the roof will cave in and fall to the ground
And I'll keep on trying though I could never let you down
It's all I'll ever haveHave, it's all I'll ever haveI promise this
After each moment, just a kiss
On your cheek or on your lips
That's all we'll ever have
