

What Are You Waiting For?

Eden's Curse

Another long and sleepless night
Don't wanna wait around for you
I keep askin' myself, Baby what I am to do?Another wrong won't make it right
Don't wanna waste another day
I keep askin' myself, Baby what I am to say?All alone, I'm so alone
Can't break these feelings for you
On my own, so on my own
Wanna wrap my arms around you
Another cold and sleepless night
One more drink can't dull the pain
I keep tellin' myself that it's not all been in vainAnother shadow breaks the light
One more demon I can't face
My mind is racing from the thrill of all I chaseDon't know the reasons why
You're holding back my life
Don't know the reasons why
Imagine how life could be
Just take a chance on me
It's written in the wind you'll see
Tell me what you're waiting for
Please tell me what went wrong
Your heart is what I'm asking for Baby can't you hear this song?Can't you hear it?
Lord can't you hear this song
