

Stains on My Letter

Del Shannon

I never thought that I could cry,
But now my eyes are never dry,
So I'm writing this letter,
And I hope that you see,
That the stains,
On this letter,
Are my tears,
Woah, yeah,
The stains on this letter,
Are my tears, I thought that I could stand alone,
I said that I could get along,
But now my thoughts have changed,
And to prove it you'll see,
That the stains,
On this letter,
Are my tears,
Woah, yeah,
The stains on this letter,
Are my tears, I guess I've had my way too long,
I've known it ever since you've gone, Oh, darling, write me just a line,
Oh, please try to find the time,
Just say you love me,
And I pray there will be,
Stains on the letter you send me,
Woah, yeah,
Stains on the letter you send me,
Stains on the letter you send me.
