

New Me

Keybone

Sup yo! Cuttdiamondz
What's up?
I keep telling you to stop calling
Stop buzzing, me and you are no cousins
I don't do friends, there's no new friends
Vugar, turn me up, let me talk to these people real quick
I'm tried of these people who think they know me
These niggers don't know me
Matter of fact, this is the new me, Motherfuckers!
The old me passed away, the old couldn't last a day
So it had to be cast away, the new me is making dough in faster ways
Still doing me no matter what a Pastor says
If you are with me, you are on the safe side
I don't take sides or try to be Mr nice guy or the ice guy
It's all Fugazi, I can tell you as a wise guy
Gold is old, don't feel hazy or lazy
The world is crazy, don't get caught up in it's madness
Be all about the joy and gladness
Since I moved on, I have been getting my groove on
With more mini-me's springing up, will more mimic me?
I don't panic as they are going manic
My old friends are foes, my real friends are those Who can take one for the team, Fake ones rather scream
When they are seeing something new Then asking "what's up with you!" Yeah!
This is the new me
To the people asking "who is the new me?"
And those still wishing they knew me
I'm here now, and this is the new me
Gone are the days I used to wine and dine with enemies
If you are a friend of my bro, then you are a friend of his
There's nothing mutual, if we ain't talking stacking racks
It's not unusual to see these niggers lacking packs
Many of whom are misfits, soon to go below six feet
Look at me now, to be clear there's no pics mix
I'm the only guy in their eye
I'm the only guy in their sky
And that explains why I turn up on any given day
Coming up with every simple way to be the undisputed champ
While they are being hooked by cramp

They made it this far cos someone overlooked their stamp
Now their days are numbered, starting to shake like some jelly fishes
Few Red bulls got them making R. Kelly's wishes
Who is that dude is the question on every lip
I'm that dude, and on me, you will never sleep This is the new me
To the people asking "who is the new me?"
And those still wishing they knew me
I'm here now, and this is the new me We can't be friends if there ain't no benefit
I can't respect you, the only way is earning it
Went through the fire, that was my way of learning it
I ain't Messiah, how else should I be saying it?
I do this for the love, some do it for the moola
Doesn't that obviously tell you what makes me the ruler
A glance at me, a stare at them, says that I am smoother
A dance with me is the only way to show you how to do that
It's a new era, and yeah reshuffling
And we are doing better, every year we are hustling
Made it up the ladder with little or no muscling
Made them say I'm badder, yet I'm still bustling
I'm not a judge but there's about to be a purge in the game
Too many men, only a few acknowledge the name
Too many bitches, who are all about the riches
I kill them like witches, feed their bodies to the fishes This is the new me
To the people asking "who is the new me?"
And those still wishing they knew me
I'm here now, and this is the new me
