Prayer For an Angel

Abra Moore

Don't tie the string so tightShe triedshe'll never slip away from youA broken wing don't flyA kiss, a kiss to say goodbyeTo a world you used to knowI watch you chase her downAway from youBut, can you hear her cry
Hope, hope is all you've gotYou've forgotten how to find your wayOver youDon't tie the string so tightshe'll never slip away from you
She tried
A broken wing don't fly.
