Greatest Prize

Nat & Alex Wolff

I'll intend the August sun,
the light shines on your eyes, and I have won,
I have won.
In a day of sadness,
when my self esteem is lowest, there you are,
I have won.

I have won the greatest prize
just to look into your eyes.
Never look away, I'll never leave this place.
If your still standing here, then I can see your face.

Oh, I have won the greatest prize,
Oh, I am in my paradise.
Oh, I have won the greatest prize,
Oh, I am in my paradise.

When I am around you,
all my worries wonder off, at different times,
Different times.
When you speak so softly,
I'm Entranced and cannot move, ill blink and nod
blink and nod.

I have won the greatest prize
just to look into your eyes.
Never look away, I'll never leave this place.
If your still standing here, then I can see your face.

Oh, I have won the greatest prize,
Oh, I am in my paradise.
Oh, I have won the greatest prize,
Oh, I am in my paradise.

Lift me up, shoot me down.
Turn my head spin me round.
Shake my heart, twist my world.
Please just stay right where you are girl.

Never look away, I'll never leave this place.

If your still standing here, then I can see your face.
Never look away, I'll never leave this place.
If your still standing here, then I can see your face.

Oh, I have won the greatest prize,
Oh, I am in my paradise.
Oh, I have won the greatest prize,
Oh, I am in my paradise.
