Keep My Heart

Jeff Deyo

Nothing left but these pieces
Nothing here except my broken life
All I offer is all I have
I lay my life beneath Your throneKeep my heart, I give it to You, Lord
As I offer mine, will You give me Yours?
Keep my heart till the closing of time
And I'll worship You for all of my life
Keep my heartNo one here but Your spirit
No one here to hear just how I feel
Just to know how I long for You
To teach me just to trust Your handI don't know if I told You
How I long for Your heart
I've just got to be like You
I've just got to be Yours
