

One Bud Wiser

Gretchen Wilson

Well, I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
I found an equalizer that makes his memory a no-show
And I wont be jonesin' for his lovin' anymore
'Cuz I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
I dropped a quarter played 'Golden Ring' on the juke box
Placed my order with the guy behind the bar
And when he handed me a cold one, well I said, "Keep the change, darlin'"
And as I drank it down I felt the healin' start
Now, I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
I found an equalizer that makes his memory a no-show
And I wont be jonesin' for his lovin' anymore
'Cuz I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
When he left me he took my brand new Silverado
I started thumbin' and I finally hitched a ride
I just came in here to drink a beer and watch the rednecks fight
Now I don't feel so bad goin' home alone tonight
'Cuz I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
I found an equalizer that makes his memory a no-show
And I wont be jonesin' for his lovin' anymore
'Cuz I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
And I wont be jonesin' for his lovin' anymore
'Cuz I'm one bud wiser than I was a minute ago
Yes, I'm one bud wiser
