

Sugar

A Hori Buzz

(Male lead)

Taste my sugar
Feel my vibe
I want a piece of you
For me
Drink this poison
Sip this wine
Drown your sorrows
In me

Feel like fighting
To feel alive
I'm going to take you
To your knees
Take this moment
We've said it all before
It's always hard to walk away
When you fall

You know I've seen it all before
This veil rotting on the floor
It was a gift you left for me

Take your poison
And take your time
I don't want this anymore
For me

All your sorrows
In the sea of your mind
Surging like a tidal wave
Drowning me

All the water has gone
Since you left me out to dry
I hope we can forgive us baby
Truthfully

(Female lead)

I'll taste this sugar
The sweet smell of regret
The bitter taste of love you served
Up to me

And drink that poison
With the cup that you left
It was the only thing you had
Over me

You know I've seen this all before
This veil is rotting on the floor
This was the gift you left for me

You know I might have been so wrong
The floor was rotting under me

You know I've seen this all before
The veil is rotting on the floor
It was the gift you left for me

You know I might have been so wrong
The floor was rotting under me
It was the gift you left for me
