

Who

Triumph The Insult Comic Dog

I hope you don't mind
The illest words you ever heard
Flow through me
Fight about now
Now that you're here
Glad you tuned in
Please turn to God
Listen, I got a vision
Ain't it about time we start livin' this life
By leadin' as examples, yeah
Before this world that exists ends up rotten to the core
By one bad apple
From my block to Bangkok
It's a mighty big world, much farther than the eye can see, yeah
That's no excuse for you and I to think
What if things still don't affect you and me
The things we don't see, I think we need to recognize
(Who, who)
Who, oh, yeah
(Who, who)
Who are you
(Who, who)
If you don't recognize?
(Who, who)
Who, oh, oh
(Who, who)
Who
(Who, who)
Yeah, you got the crib of ya dreams and you rollin' on dubs
But tell me where's the love, where?
You betta rememba, for every picket fence in the suburbs
Down the street there's a growin' ghetto, on the other side, yeah
And how along the way
Where did we, how did we forget about the children? Oh, oh
Maybe that's why we're playin' catchup
Tryna make up for ones we lost over time, oh, failin' to realize
Oh yeah, oh yeah
(Who, who)
Oh, who cares?

(Who, who)
Who's gonna lead us?
(Who, who)
Is anybody listening out there?
(Who)
If so, who, who?
(Who, who, who)
Oh, you gotta understand
(Who, who)
If somebody who's called, if a bombshell fall
Then the children, and the laughter
The green pastures would come to an end
See the choices we make seals our faith
So glad you tuned in
Hello, is anybody listening out there? Oh
Need some time to breathe, yeah
We all need time to breathe
Get our thoughts together, yeah
(Who)
Who, who
(Who)
Who
(Who, who)
Who's gonna care?
(Who, who)
Who (Who)
Who, who
(Who)
Who
(Who, who)
Who's gonna really care?
Who's gonna take us there?
Who's gonna change their ways?
Who's gonna pay the price?
Who's gonna change their life?
Who's gonna takes us there?
Who's gonna find the path?
Who's gonna live for self?
Who's gonna live for us?
Who's gonna live for love or the name, or the music?
Looking back as your master
Well, I don't believe now I'm gonna ask
Let the crossroads
This is just another phase of my life

Oh yeah, oh yeah
Oh, is anybody listening?
Tell me
