

Home Again (with Dialog)

Sheryl Crow, Dave Alvin, Phil Alvin & Taj Mahal

The whole world can tell your side, it just says so in your eyes
Sorry that you feel so sad but I think you'll be alright
You got many friends here to be by your side, we're all here to help you Oh Oh Home Again, Aren't you glad to be home again?
Oh Oh Home again, you're amongst friends
Aren't you glad to be home again? The world can make you weary and mean, just take a look outside
Some will try to buy your dreams and hide the truth with lies
Good fortune comes your way, they just stand back and Scream never wanted you here anyway
Oh Oh Home Again, Aren't you glad to be home again?
Oh Oh Home again, you're amongst friends
Aren't you glad to be home again? Why don't you rest here awhile, let your anxiety subside maybe walk around the town, you don't have to speak if you got nothing left to say, I will try to ease your pain tomorrow's another day
Oh Oh Home Again, Aren't you glad to be home again?
Oh Oh Home again, you're amongst friends
Aren't you glad to be home again? Oh Oh Home Again, Aren't you glad to be home again?
Oh Oh Home Again, Aren't you glad to be home again?
