Walk You Home

Immature

Let me walk you home from
Yo, it's Romeo
Let me walk you home from school, bye bye
Yeah, and immatures back on
And we doin' it like thisLet me walk you home from
Yeah
Yo Batman
Let me walk you home from school, bye bye
Be right hereBaby would you be mine?
I've never seen no one
Let loose like youHold my hand
Come walk with me
Baby, baby, baby you can see
I'm the keyLet me walk you home from school, bye bye
And do the little things I wanna do
Let me walk you home from school, bye bye, say bye
And do the little things I wanna doBecause it's time to be more then just friends
Just you and me, I'll be your man
Come stroll with me, I wanna walk you home
'Cause there's lots of things to seeLet me walk you home from school, bye bye, say bye
And do the little things I wanna do
Let me walk you home from school, bye bye, say bye
And do the little things I wanna doRomeo, Romeo here I go
I wanna walk you home, so you know
So you know, so you know
There's things to be done hun
For fun hunYour mom, I'm not your son honey bun
I wanna walk up your stairs real sneaky
Romeo's gonna get real freaky
Romeo, Romeo I hear you screamin' my nameLet me walk you home from
Let me walk you home from school, bye bye, say bye
And do the little things I wanna doLet me walk you home from
Let me walk you home from school
Let me walk you home from school, bye bye, say bye
And do the little things I wanna do
