

Hazy Daze

Stone Temple Pilots

I'm freely standing on my own
Or am I fallin' in a river cold
Those friends always ask me
Sayin', "How you been?"
Well, I've seen somber days
Am I mistaken?
Could you be sitting there lonely too?
He was a man who didn't want me anymore
He never, never, never 'round
How much did you get for selling out my name?
Still won't forget those hazy daze, yeah
It's in the nighttime when I'm feelin' old
Oh, am I lonely, I watched you go
My friends always wonder

Ask, "How you been?"
Well, I've seen better days
Am I mistaken?
(Am I mistaken?)
Could you be sitting there lonely too?
He was a man who didn't want me anymore
He never, never, never 'round
How much did you get for selling out my name?
Still won't forget those hazy daze, yeah
He was a man who didn't want me anymore
He never, never, never 'round
How much did you get for selling out my name?
Still won't forget those hazy daze, yeah
