

Baby Check Your Friend

Silk

[Intro]

2,000 watts

Presents Silk

Check it

Check your friend

Layin' it down with my man Steve

Lay it down, lay it down And I don't know what's going on

(She's paging me, she's calling me)

I just called to see what's wrong

(She's telling me she's feeling me)

And she said I really, really turn her on

And she can't wait to get me all alone

Baby when you're not home, yeah, yeah[1]

I can't believe the things she said to me

Telling me she's feeling very free-eaky

And I don't understand

When she knows that I'm her girlfriend's man Repeat 2: x2]

Baby check your friend

She's trying to steal your man

(She said she'd rather have me all to herself)

Baby check your friend

She's out to steal your man

(But I could never do my baby like that) Oh, listen now

She saying we were meant to be

(She's trying to get to ruin me)

And why is she trying to player hate my baby

(Well I won't give a piece of me)

She had the nerve to tell me

That she had to get with me

She don't give a damn about you, no

I guess she really doesn't know me

Now I'm blowing up her spot

And this game is getting hotter[Repeat 1][Repeat 2: x2] You share with her everything between you and I

Oh yeah, oh

Never should of told her how I do you at night

Yeah, oh

You can't imagine all the things she offered me

Her plan was so secure

Get into her bedroom door

And baby I can't take it no more[Repeat 2 until fade]
