

King of Stone

Orchestral Manoeuvres In the Dark

Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone
Gave away the love he'd known
Just to be the king of stone
The only life he's ever known
(The empty world that he'd made his own)
But I don't believe I'm made of stone Now you've seen me
Now you don't
Can you hear me
Because quite soon you won't
So save your whispers
For some other man
Because I can hear you you
And I know who I am Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone
Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone
Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone
